Wednesday, October 22nd

10:30 a.m.	MJC Board of Governors Fall Meeting	Warwick
1:00-2:00 p.m.	CJE Committee Meeting	Warwick
1:00-2:00 p.m.	Registration	Mezzanine
2:00-2:15 p.m.	Welcome & Opening Remarks Mike Wright Program Manager Mississippi Judicial College	Windsor I

General Sessions:

2:15-3:15 p.m.	THE COURT REPORTER AND MAKING THE RECORD (1.00 CJE) An accurate record is the most important component of the legal case, as it is the only written record of the case from beginning to end. It is crucial that the trial transcript reflects exactly what transpired during the court proceedings, which is essential for appellate review. Kathy Zebert, RPR Stenedge Athens, Georgia
3:15-3:30 p.m.	Break
3:30-5:00 p.m.	DEALING WITH THE NEWS MEDIA: RIGHT, WRONG, & OTHERWISE (1.50 CJE) This hilarious and highly interactive session will have you thinking hard about your interactions with the media. How does communication with the press impact the law? Judges are sure to take home at least one new piece of advice as we address such topics as how reporters and editors think, how to deal more effectively with them, the legal ethics involved in communicating with the press, the consequences of press communication on government investigations, and much more. This presentation comes highly recommended and has been presented at the National Judicial College. Don Tomlinson Attorney at Law Texas City, Texas Hon. Steve Smith Presiding Judge 361 st District Court Bryan, Texas
