

A video hearing has been set in the above styled case. The details of the hearing are below. If you have not done so already, please visit zoom.us to set up an account. This will need to be done prior to your hearing. Your clients and witnesses will need to appear either by setting up their own zoom account or by appearing in your office. If they will be setting up their own zoom account please forward the hearing details to them.

Please be mindful that zoom and other video conference hearings are court appearances. Appropriate courtroom etiquette (including attire and conduct) is expected during zoom/video conference hearings of all participants, including attorneys, litigants and witnesses.
